

real love

In Germany
gay people aren't allowed to donate their blood for somebody.
Why are people thinking like that?
It's ok to be gay, one day people will understand.

We stick together,
we are one.
It doesn't matter
who you love.
It's your choice because love is always true.
Girls with girls and boys with boys.
It is only your choice.

There aren't typical gay people out of your head (idiot).
Everybody is different and that is a good thing.
Show me who you love,
show me how you live.
Show me how happy you are.
Everyone is perfect like he, she or it is.

We stay together....

Bridge

We live together...

Hey you! Wake up!
We are in 2019 not in middle age.
It's ok, if you didn't knew better before but NOW
the time has come to change your mind, because real love is always true.
